On winning the prestigious award, Varnika Kukreja said, "I am pleased, honored and humbled to accept this award and to join past recipients who I have long admired and respected. A very special thanks to the jury for selecting me and an enormous salute to all of this year's nominees each of whom have made incredible contributions towards shaping the future of the region and nation. It feels amazing to be placed amongst the top ten talented professionals across the globe."

She further added, "Warehousing industry is still largely male-dominated, but today many large warehousing management firms have women in senior roles. I am extremely proud that I am part of SLCM Group, which believes in nurturing and encouraging talented professionals regardless of their gender. Women in leadership roles bring an extra measure of multi-tasking, empathy, acumen, assertiveness and determination to succeed in a hyper-competitive business environment. I am sure this recognition will draw the attention of senior leaders of various institutions towards the role women play in organizational success."
