SLCM Doubles Down on Social Responsibility with New Educational and Welfare Projects

BY RUTUPARNA RATH • APRIL 9, 2025

09 April, 2025: Sohan Lal Commodity Management (SLCM), India's largest post-harvest logistics and Agri-solutions Company, announced the expansion of a multi-faceted CSR program aimed towards empowering children, youth, and women through education, skill development, and social welfare programs. This initiative underscores SLCM's dedication to building a more inclusive and equitable society by investing in the next generation and supporting vulnerable communities.

SLCM Group partnered with various NGOs and grassroots organizations, including Sai Sanskar Foundation, Urivi Vikram Charitable Trust, Alok Charitable Trust, and Earth Saviour Foundation, to roll out these programs across key regions, ensuring long-term impact on vulnerable communities. This initiative aligns with SLCM's broader mission to foster social equity and opportunity for all.

Through this initiative, SLCM Group launched key programs aimed at:

▶ Education

Expanding access to quality education by building physics labs in local schools of Pittoragarh and Devidhura, located in Uttarakhand, supporting underprivileged students with school supplies such as books, stationery, bags, to name a few.

▶ Skill Development

As part of its commitment to skill development and youth empowerment, SLCM Group has launched a comprehensive initiative to provide career-focused training and counseling support to students, educators, and communities in Delhi. This initiative includes various training programs such as Digital Tools for Career Advancement and Customer Relationship Management, Workshop for School Leaders, extensive Outreach Activity involving career guidance sessions.

► Social Welfare

A series of awareness sessions are being conducted on women's health and safety, along with access to Sanitary Napkins, and providing counseling and wellness programs at the Gangagarh village of Bulandshahr district, Uttar Pradesh. In Delhi/NCR, SLCM provided electric wheelchairs to individuals with mobility challenges, aiming to enhance independence, dignity, and quality of life for people with disabilities, the elderly, and those with limited mobility.

Speaking on these initiatives, Sandeep Sabharwal, Group CEO of SLCM, stated, "Our belief is that true progress extends beyond business success, it lies in empowering those in need and enabling a brighter future for them. Through our CSR initiatives, we are committed to promoting social inclusion by bridging educational gaps and fostering skill development. We see this as an investment in the future of India, and we will continue to contribute to bringing a positive change in as many lives as possible."
